

Instructor Questions - Score Analysis

I think that the overall quality of the precepts was:

Individual Teacher Report for POL 230: Introduction to Comparative Politics - P03 - E. Voytas - 2018-2019 Fall

Instructor Questions - Frequency Analysis

I think that the overall quality of the precepts was:

1. I think that the overall quality of the precepts was:

Options	Score	Count	Percentage
Excellent	5	9	100%
Very Good	4	0	0%
Good	3	0	0%
Fair	2	0	0%
Poor	1	0	0%

Individual Teacher Report for POL 230: Introduction to Comparative Politics - P03 - E. Voytas - 2018-2019 Fall

Precepts - Please comment on the quality of the precepts. How did they contribute to your learning in the course? To what extent did the preceptor raise challenging questions, help clarify course material, and encourage broad student participation? Was the preceptor responsive to students' questions, opinions, and criticism?

Comments

Elsa was a super engaging and helpful preceptor. She's probably the best preceptor I've had while at Princeton. She facilitated great discussions and was available and willing to help me when writing my papers for the course.

Elsa is great!!! Very helpful and approachable.

The precepts were of very high quality; the preceptor would give us advance notice of possible discussion topics so we could further prepare. During the precept, the preceptor would clarify any material in lecture if we needed, and encouraged group discussion and debate over challenging questions. The preceptor would always encourage some form of student participation (either individually or through a group) and was always receptive to any questions, opinions, or criticisms.

Elsa was an amazing preceptor! She sparked an incredibly interesting conversation and was very engaged and responsive to our questions and opinions. She organized fun group activities to help us embed the readings. Her teaching style is great and she really made everyone feel comfortable expressing their opinions and views; a very positive learning environment was created.

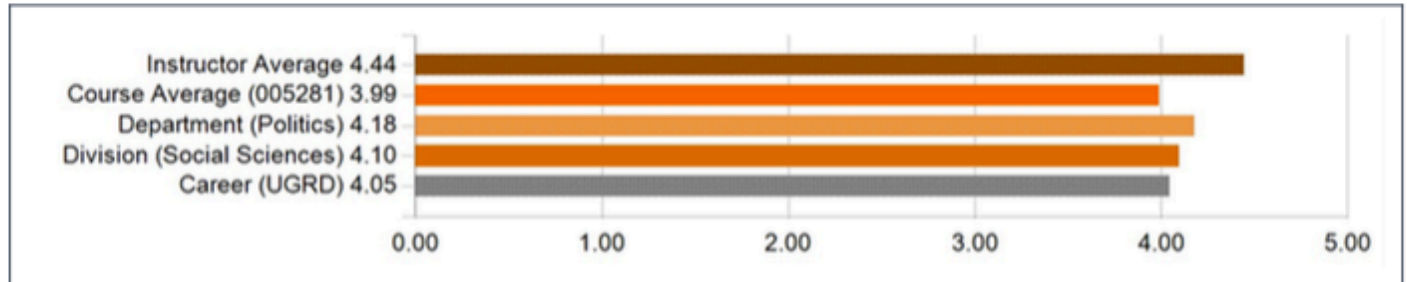

Elsa is a wonderful preceptor—very generous with her time, and extremely knowledgeable. She ran the precepts very well, making sure that we were hitting the broad key points while allowing plenty of time for student participation and input. I think it's really rare to find a preceptor who can hit that balance between directing and overpowering the discussion, and Elsa did a great job clarifying points from lecture and other readings.

The precepts were amazing and by far my favorite aspect of the class. Elsa was always very helpful and the lessons on the class were very enjoyable.

I am a senior in the Woodrow Wilson School, and Elsa is the best preceptor I've ever had. She was able to cover all the readings in our short precept window and create what felt like a "low stakes" participation environment. We had informative and engaging discussions in our precept, which prepared us well for the midterm. For our assignments, I needed help outlining both of my papers, and Elsa made herself available and extremely useful in the process. Her feedback on our written work was extremely clear and insightful. Thank you, Elsa!

Instructor Questions - Score Analysis

I think that the overall quality of the precepts was:

Individual Teacher Report for POL 230: Introduction to Comparative Politics - P01 - E. Voytas - 2018-2019 Fall

Instructor Questions - Frequency Analysis

I think that the overall quality of the precepts was:

1. I think that the overall quality of the precepts was:

Options	Score	Count	Percentage
Excellent	5	4	44%
Very Good	4	5	56%
Good	3	0	0%
Fair	2	0	0%
Poor	1	0	0%

Individual Teacher Report for POL 230: Introduction to Comparative Politics - P01 - E. Voytas - 2018-2019 Fall

Precepts - Please comment on the quality of the precepts. How did they contribute to your learning in the course? To what extent did the preceptor raise challenging questions, help clarify course material, and encourage broad student participation? Was the preceptor responsive to students' questions, opinions, and criticism?

Comments

I thought Elsa did a good job with the precept. She was great at explaining concepts and breaking down complex ideas. She was also encouraging when people answered and you never felt afraid to speak for fear of being wrong.

Reinforced lecture material well but could have been more engaging

The precepts were invaluable in helping all of us unpack the weekly readings, because we would often miss some critical details due to the dense nature of the writing. We ran out of time to discuss everything more often than not, which was admittedly frustrating.

elsa is a fantastic preceptor! always very helpful in getting us to understand the basic concepts and facilitating discussion.

They helped clarify things, but I think it'd be good to go over more readings.

Students in precept were able to have their specific questions answered and our discussions fostered a lot of interesting perspectives and analyses. Elsa was very responsive to students' questions and was always available to us outside of the classroom as well, which was very helpful.

I liked having Elsa as a preceptor. I found the class activities to be beneficial. Elsa also was very helpful outside of class as she held a review session and provided constructive feedback for my essay ideas during conferences.

Elsa is a great preceptor who truly wants to see her students learn. She listens earnestly to questions, answers thoroughly, creates an environment in which students want to be actively engaged, and is always accessible for extra help.

ELSA IS AMAZING. Such an awesome preceptor. Incredibly knowledgeable, provides great feedback on written work, very willing to meet one-on-one to go over material. Also, Elsa is incredibly good at leading group discussions and encouraging all students to contribute in an environment that facilitates free discussion.